Gang of Thieves Arrested.

Four men accused of stealing brass journals from freight cars at Watsessing were arrested by the Newark police yesterday morning and committed to jail in default of bail. Policeman Feller and Chanceman Schaefer of the Second Precinct, with Policeman Joseph Ebert of the First Precinct, Newark, met at Bloomfield and Clifton avenues Friday morning, and were standing there when an east-bound trolley car came down Bloomfield avenue and stopped at the THOMAS OAKES, crossing. Four men alighted, and the heavy sacks two of them were carrying attracted the attention of the officers. They ordered the men to halt, and Feller and Ebert seized Smith and Coopey, while Maier and McCormick started on a run through Clifton avenue. Schaefer ran after them, and when the fugitives paid no attention to his shouts he drew his revolver and fired a shot at the ficelog men.
